Student Effort

Your total Student Effort consists of a Student Employment expectation and a Student Summer Income Contribution. Depending on your federal eligibility, your Student Employment expectation may be met with Federal Work-Study or a term-time job. For more information, visit the Student Effort page of the Financial Aid website at finaid.yale.edu/student-effort.

Outside merit scholarships may replace your Student Employment expectation and your Student Summer Income Contribution. For more information, visit the Scholarships and Grants page of the Financial Aid website at finaid.yale.edu/scholarships-and-grants.

Loans are not required in Yale the financial aid award. However, if you decide to do so, you may still borrow a loan to replace your Student Employment expectation and/or Student Summer Income Contribution.

If you wish to borrow a student loan, please visit the Loan Options page of the Financial Aid website at finaid.yale.edu/loans for more information. We recommend that you wait until you receive your financial aid award before you decide to borrow.
